Return policy details

Returns accepted if item is not as described. Most items I sell are antique or vintage. They are old and as such have been around for many years and may show signs of use and wear. I describe condition to the best of my ability, but everyone has different ideas of condition. I am more than happy to try and resolve any issues a customer may have with an item before getting to the stage of returning that item. I accept returns for a refund if it is clear that there has been an error in the eBay listing, such as significant faults not noted. Please email me regarding the item and please return in the same packaging, in the same condition as when sold and by the same postal service by which it was delivered. On receipt of the item a refund will be actioned following cancellation of the eBay transaction. Please note if you return an item because you have changed your mind postage will not be refunded.

Most purchases from business sellers are protected by the Consumer Contract Regulations 2013 which give you the right to cancel the purchase within 14 days after the day you receive the item. Find out more about your rights as a buyer and exceptions.
